

Camp Crown - Hills, lakes and a blue sky are the mark of this Camp, forming the Northwest quadrant of the complete patch. 146 acres include over 20 campsites and 5 ponds.

Camp Oakarro - The Northeast quadrant patch bears the old Indian sign of the golden oak leaf backed with crossed arrows. A fitting symbol for a camp of woods, creek & ponds.

N.E. ILL. Council Camps - The Northeast Illinois Council Patch complete's the circle.

Camp Dan Beard - Dan's hat and hiking sticks are the symbols in this patch quadrant. The 80 acre camp boasts ample sites for tents as well as cabins & facilities for winter.

THE FOUR PATCHES PUT TOGETHER FORM THE COMPLETE COMPASS ROSE (Actual Size 6 1/4" Diameter)
